Story of Icarus | The boy who flew too close to the sun

Not they! And not an idea remained in the boy's head but the one joy of escape. b The day came, and the fair wind that was to set them free. The father bird put on his wings, and, while the light urged them to be gone, he waited to see that all was well with Icarus, for the two could not fly hand in hand. Up they rose, the boy after his father.
