This section has sheet music (scores) for saxophone quartets and larger saxophone ensembles in all genres ("classical," popular, and jazz). The quartet music is mostly for SATB quartets (a few have alternate alto parts) but we have more AATB quartets than we used to.

Saxophone Quartets and Larger Ensembles

Free improvisation or free music is improvised music without any rules beyond the logic or inclination of the musician(s) involved. The term can refer to both a technique (employed by any musician in any genre) and as a recognizable genre in its own right.

Free Jazz: A Collective Improvisation is the sixth album by jazz saxophonist and composer Ornette Coleman, released on Atlantic Records in 1961, his fourth for the label. Its title established the name of the then-nascent free jazz movement. The recording session took place on December 21, 1960, at A&R Studios in New York City. The sole outtake from the album session, "First Take," was later ...

Jordan, I didn't know you studied with Stefon! Well, now your (healthy) obsession with triads plus bass notes makes even more sense. I think my takeaway from this thread has been not so much that this is "the way" to analyze Parker (which you never claimed anyway) but more that trains of thought that can be considered "more modern" are not antithetical to the approach of bebop...
