Heart of Darkness (1899) is a novella by Polish-English novelist Joseph Conrad about a narrated voyage up the Congo River into the Congo Free State in the so-called heart of Africa. Charles Marlow, the narrator, tells his story to friends aboard a boat anchored on the River Thames. This setting provides the frame for Marlow's story of his obsession with the ivory trader Kurtz, which enables ...

A portable source of light probably started with a cave man carrying a burning stick of wood. There have been many portable light sources based on burning something. Once the dry cell battery became available flashlights became more popular than they were when a lead acid or other wet battery was needed.
